PARENTAL CONSENT

For a complete explanation of the information we collect from children under 13 and how that information is used by Instantserials.com, please see our Privacy Policy, Section 3, available at www.InstantSerials.com/privacy.aspx

Parents/guardians of children using the Instant Serials (“IS”) website, (the “Website”), have the right to access and control their child’s IS account and to request information about their child’s usage of the Website. As part of the features provided on the Website, there is a Message Board / Group Discussion Forum, which allows reading group members to post threads discussing the story they are currently reading. Such Message Board / Group Discussion Forums are accessible only by members of a particular reading group.

Children under age 13 who are not members of an educational reading group must have written consent from a parent/guardian in order to post messages to a Message Board / Group Discussion Forum on the Website. The only personally identifiable information that IS displays in connection with usage of the Discussion Board feature is the member’s first name and last initial. Although IS’s Message Boards / Group Discussion Forums are accessible only by members of a particular reading group, members are encouraged to use caution when disclosing any information in such a forum. INSTANTSERIALS.COM is not responsible for use by others of information that is disclosed on a Message Board / Group Discussion Forum.

In order to grant permission for your child to use the Message Board / Group Discussion Forum feature of the Website, please complete the information below, sign the form and return to IS as directed below.
